Key Takeaways

India has a wide range of electric distribution box manufacturers offering reliable, high-quality products for residential, commercial, and industrial applications. Leading Manufacturers and Suppliers

- Vaibhav Laxmi Industries (VLI) – A prominent manufacturer of distribution boxes in India, VLI emphasizes reliability, safety, and efficiency in power management solutions. They provide products suitable for seamless power distribution and uninterrupted performance, and you can request a quote directly from their website (vaibhavlaxmiindustries.com) .

- Pantek Group – With over six years of experience, Pantek Group manufactures and supplies high-quality distribution boxes across India. Their products are known for superior performance and wide domestic availability, making them suitable for various applications (pantekgroup.in) .

- Top Suppliers on IndiaMART – Some of the highly rated distribution box suppliers include:

- Harshita Electricals – Mobile: +91 7949092359

- Sanlec Automation – Mobile: +91 7942702834

- Perfect Electric Co – Mobile: +91 7942703540 Affordable options include Hindustan Tech, Flucon Components Private Limited, and Golden Industries, offering competitive pricing and bulk order support (dir.indiamart.com) .

- TradeIndia Listings – TradeIndia provides a comprehensive list of power distribution box manufacturers, suppliers, and dealers across India, including companies like S.R. Network and Lokenath Patterns & Castings (tradeindia.com) .

Key Considerations

- Product Range: Manufacturers offer single-phase, three-phase, and customized distribution boxes for homes, industries, and commercial setups.

- Certifications: Many suppliers provide products with safety and quality certifications to meet Indian standards.

- Ordering and Delivery: Most suppliers support bulk orders and provide nationwide delivery. Payment options typically include bank transfer, credit card, and online payment systems.

- Pricing: Prices vary depending on specifications, ranging from affordable options starting around ₹120 per piece to premium models with advanced features. For sourcing electric distribution boxes in India, you can directly contact these manufacturers or explore platforms like IndiaMART and TradeIndia to compare products, request quotes, and verify certifications.
